BOOK REVIEW FORM

Name: ____________________________________________________________

Club: _______________________________________________________________________

Title of Book: _______________________________________________________________________

Author: _______________________________________________________________________

Category (Genre):
Example: general fiction, mystery, romance, western, classic, short stories, science fiction, or non-fiction

How do you rate this book?
_____ Not recommended  _____ Recommended  _____ Highly Recommended

IN YOUR OWN WORDS, write a short summary of the book and comment about what you did or did not like about this book. (Use the other side if additional space is needed.)

Remember: A book review tells not only what a book is about, but also how successful it is at what it is trying to do. When you write a review, you should 1) describe what the book is about, 2) analyze how well the book and/or author achieves its purpose, and 3) express your own reactions to the book. Last, remember to write your review in the present tense such as is, has, and does instead of was, had, and did.

______________________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________________