MISSION STATEMENT

To Strengthen Families through:

• Leadership Development
• Volunteer Work
• Educational Support
• Research-based education from North Carolina State University and North Carolina State A&T State University

BLOOM

• With Social Interaction
• Personal Growth
• Service to Others

GROW

• In Leadership Skills
• In Knowledge
• In Personal Skills
1. There are over 5700 active Extension & Community Association (ECA) members in North Carolina.

2. The primary objective of ECA is to carry out an informal educational program planned by ECA leaders to provide a better and more meaningful life for themselves, their families, and their communities.

3. An active member attends a monthly club meeting and receives educational information through a leader or guest presenter.

4. The membership of the ECA is composed of members at all levels: local, county, district and state. Membership is open to all regardless of color, creed, national origin, race, sex, age, or disability.

NC Extension & Community Association members strive to promote a better quality of life for all through education, community service, and leadership.

How do I become a member?

To become an active member, contact the County Extension Agent for Family & Consumer Sciences, or complete the membership enrollment form and return to the County Extension Center. You will be given contact information for the ECA Club nearest you.

How long has this organization existed?

The North Carolina Organization of Home Demonstration Clubs was organized at State College, Raleigh, in 1920. Through the years the name has been changed several times as the organization evolved. In 1999, the name was changed to the North Carolina Extension & Community Association, Inc.
